The Alberta Wall & Ceiling Association (AWCA) is a non-profit organization. Our "Mission Statement" declares that "The Alberta Wall & Ceiling Association is the Provincial voice of the wall and ceiling industry, providing and promoting technical information and training to our membership, to the construction industry and consumers at large."

The Alberta Wall & Ceiling Association's membership includes those companies exemplifying the highest standards within our industry including professional tradesmen, contractors, distributors, and the major manufacturers of construction building materials/systems. We invite you to visit www.albertawallandceiling.com to learn more about our Association; or to speak with a member; or to telephone or email our office.

Members in good standing within "AWCA" are bound by the provisions, obligations and requirements contained in the Association's "By-Laws" and agree to comply with the standards in the Association's "Code of Ethics."

Members of AWCA meet several times each calendar year in various locations throughout Alberta to address concerns facing our industry to determine priority issues requiring the focused attention, energies and resources of the Association. In addition to regularly scheduled Edmonton and Calgary lunch meetings, AWCA provides funding for Lather - Interior Systems Mechanic apprenticeship training, and has partnered with Careers:The Next Generation to develop a program aimed at promoting and creating career opportunities for Alberta's high school students (AWCA RAP DRAFT), and our Technical, Environment & Safety Committee ensures our members are up to date with the latest information including offering a Peer Review Program for members .

In addition, numerous networking opportunities are organized including regular lunch/toolbox meetings, golf tournaments, a curling bonspiel, a clay shoot and Christmas celebrations in both Edmonton and Calgary.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the entire AWCA membership, we welcome your interest in our Association and further, welcome the opportunity to discuss the benefits of joining our Association with you.
